[L.S.] W. C. WOODWARD,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

E. PEPLER, Deputy Attorney-General. { WHEREAS an application has been received by the Department of Agriculture from the Four Mile Stock Association of Penticton District, asking that bulls be allowed to run at large in the vicinity of Penticton, the boundaries of which area are more particularly described as follows:—

“Commencing at a point in Lot 210 on the shore-line of Okanagan Lake where Naramata Creek enters said lake; thence southerly along said shore-line of Okanagan Lake to the north-west corner of Lot 200; thence east along the north boundary of Lots 200, 369, and 392; thence south along the east boundary of Lot 392 to the south-east corner thereof; thence west to the north-east corner of Lot 672; thence south along the west boundary of Lots 202 (S.), 203 (S.), 368, and 1032 (S.) to the south-west corner of Lot 1032 (S.); thence west to the north-west corner of S.L. 10; thence south along the east boundary of Lots 203, 155, and 267 to the south-east corner of Lot 267 on Penticton Creek; thence north-easterly along Penticton Creek to the south-west corner of Lot 205 (S.); thence west to Naramata Creek; thence south along the south bank of Naramata Creek to point of commencement”:

And whereas the said application has been investigated by the Live Stock Commissioner, who reports that it is in accordance with the best interests of the stock-owners in the said district:

And whereas section 3 (2) of the “Animals Act,” being chapter 10, “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936,” and amending Acts, provides that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Proclamation, define any area as a district in which bulls over one year old may be allowed to run at large, and may also define the time during which and the conditions subject to which such bulls may be allowed to run at large in that district:

NOW KNOW YE that, in pursuance thereof, We do hereby declare that bulls of a good type, over one year old, may be allowed to run at large in the above-described area under the provisions of the said Act, from the first day of May to the thirty-first day of October in each year.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed:

WITNESS, the Honourable WILLIAM CULHAM WOODWARD, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Our Reign.

By Command.

1036-ap22 P. WALKER,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.

[L.S.] W. C. WOODWARD,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

E. PEPLER, Deputy Attorney-General. { WHEREAS the Registered Nurses Association of British Columbia is organizing a Publicity Campaign, a “Nurses’ Week,” May 9th to 16th, 1943, inclusive:

- (1.) To enlighten and secure the interest of the general public in all phases of nursing:
- (2.) To increase recruitment of students for schools of nursing:

And whereas in order to bring the Campaign to the attention of the general public, the Association has requested that the week, May 9th to 16th, 1943, inclusive, be proclaimed as “Nurses’ Week” throughout the Province:

And whereas We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of Our said Province, to accede to the request of the Association, and to appoint the week, May 9th to 16th, 1943, inclusive, as “Nurses’ Week” throughout the Province:

NOW KNOW YE, that We do, for that end publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby appoint the week, May 9th to 16th, 1943, inclusive, as “Nurses’ Week” throughout the Province.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed:

WITNESS, the Honourable WILLIAM CULHAM WOODWARD, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province, in Our City of Victoria, this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, and in the seventh year of Our Reign.

By Command.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 78.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Fishing Industry.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "fishing industry" means the work of employees engaged in the washing, preparing, preserving, canning, drying, curing, smoking, packing, labelling, and reconditioning of containers, or otherwise adapting for sale or use or for shipment any kind of fish or shell-fish.

2. That the minimum wage in the fishing industry for every employee not included in any other Order of the Board (except any employee to whom a permit is issued under section 5 of the said "Female Minimum Wage Act," and except as provided by sections 3 and 4 hereof) shall be thirty-three cents (33c.) per hour.

3. (a.) That a licence shall be obtained from the Board by the employer to employ in the fishing industry a learner of any age, not included in any other Order of the Board, at the rate fixed by subsection (b) hereof.

(b.) That, subject to the exemptions granted from time to time under section 5 of the said "Female Minimum Wage Act" and to the limitations provided by section 6 of the said Act, and subject to the provisions of section 4 hereof, the minimum wage for a learner of any age in the fishing industry, not included in any other Order of the Board, shall be twenty-eight cents (28c.) per hour for the first two hundred (200) hours' employment in the fishing industry, and, thereafter, as provided by section 2 hereof.

4. That employees engaged in heading and filling in the fishing industry shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 2, 3, and 5 hereof.

5. That every employee in the fishing industry, except as provided by section 4 hereof, called for employment by her employer, shall be paid, after reporting at the place of employment, according to the rate to which she is entitled, as provided by sections 2 or 3 of this Order.

6. That no employee shall be employed for more than ten (10) hours in any day nor more than forty-eight (48) hours in any week, except when a permit in writing has been granted by the Board.

7. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to each employee covered by this Order all wages and salary earned by the employee up to a day not more than eight (8) days prior to the date of payment.

8. That this Order shall become effective on the 3rd day of May, 1943, and be in substitution for the Order of the Minimum Wage Board, establishing a minimum wage in the fishing industry, effective on and from the 28th day of February, 1920, which is hereby rescinded.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 14th day of April, 1943.

To purchase, take on lease or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire timber lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and any rights or privileges which may be necessary for the purpose of the Company's business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, and implements, and to construct, and erect, maintain, and improve, own, purchase, or otherwise acquire, manage, and work engines, steamers, tramways, branches, and sidings, waterworks, aqueducts, flumes, dams, water-courses, buildings, piers, wharves, factories, logging-railways operated by steam, electricity, mechanical, or other power, bridges, booms, timber-slides, booming-grounds, manufactories, shingle-mills, sawmills, factories, buildings, machinery, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, either directly or indirectly, and to contribute to or otherwise aid or take part in such operations:

(b.) To carry on the business of foresters, timber merchants, sawmill and planing-mill proprietors, and timbermen in all or any of its branches, producers, manufacturers of and dealers in wood-pulp, and makers of and dealers in paper of all kinds, and articles made from paper or pulp, and materials used in the manufacture or treatment of paper, including cardboard and millboard, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, export, import, and deal in sawlogs, timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber is used or forms a component part:

(c.) To carry on the business of loggers, lumbermen, sawmill and shingle-mill operators, lumber and timber merchants in any and all branches; and to produce, manufacture, prepare for market, manipulate, buy, sell, import, export, distribute, and deal in sawlogs, timber, piles, poles, posts, lumber, shingles, lath, sashes and doors, firewood and sawdust, and articles of all kinds that are products of wood, or in the manufacture of which wood is used, or of which wood forms a component part:

(d.) To carry on the business of builders and general contractors; to manufacture, distribute, and deal in portable buildings of all kinds, and all parts thereof; to construct, improve, operate, maintain, alter, and pull down houses of all kinds, garages, factories, mills, plants, and all other buildings of any kind whatsoever; to enter into contracts for and to execute and carry out both private and public works of every description; and to carry on the business of producing, distributing, and dealing in supplies and materials of all kinds that can be used, directly or indirectly, in or about or in connection with the business of builders or contractors, and to render and provide for service of all kinds in connection with such businesses:

(e.) To carry on the business of preparing, distributing, and dealing in specifications, plans, and drawings of buildings of all kinds, provided that the Company shall not contravene the provisions of the "Architects Act" of the Province of British Columbia:

(f.) To construct, operate, and maintain electric works, power-houses, generating plants, or any other appliances or conveniences useful, necessary, or proper for generating electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power:

(g.) To engage in and carry on the business of buying and selling real property and any estate or interest therein or appurtenant thereto as principal and agent:

(h.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to apply for and obtain water rights or water licences pursuant to the provisions of the "Water Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, chapter 305, and amendments thereto, and to do all things which a company specially incorporated for such purpose might do under the provisions of the said "Water Act":

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands of any description, and any estate or interest therein, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by subdividing lands and preparing building-sites, and by constructing and improving roads, streets, and lanes, and by constructing sewers and water service and any other desirable conveniences connected therewith:

(j.) To carry on the business of structural steel-workers, iron-founders, steel fabricators, and manufacturers of machinery of every description whatsoever, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, tool-makers, brass-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, engine-makers, pump-makers, manufacturers of aeroplanes and airships and motor-vehicles, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smelters, smiths, wood-workers, builders, painters, metallurgists, electricians, gas-makers, carriers and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, and hardware of all kinds:

(k.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of bricks, tiles, pipes, pottery, earthenware, china, and terra-cotta, and ceramic ware of all kinds, and of paviors and manufacturers of and dealers in artificial stone, whether for building, paving, or other purposes:

(l.) To engage in the business of manufacturing chemists in all its branches:

(m.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track of aerial or other tramways, with the necessary side-tracks and turn-outs for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges, which are in the line of the tramway intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(n.) To take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds on the tramway by any motive power now used or that may be afterwards discovered:

(o.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels, and to carry on the business of towing, freightering, and lightering, and of the conveyance of passengers, and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping agents and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(p.) To manage, develop, advance on, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of any interest, option, or rights in and over concessions, grants, lands, leases, and any real or personal estate or property of every description, and to work and develop the resources of and turn the same to account in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by reclaiming, clearing, draining, ditching, irrigating, paving, fencing, planting, building, letting on lease, farming, grazing, and reforesting, and by the establishment of experimental plots or farms or otherwise on any terms or system that may be considered advisable:

(q.) To stock the said lands, and to breed, grow, and deal in all kinds of live stock, cattle, sheep, and farm, orchard, and garden produce:

(r.) To own, purchase, construct, build, and operate hotels, boarding-houses, rooming-houses, dwelling-houses, and other structures, and to let out the same on hire, and to collect the rents for same, and to own, acquire, and operate wholesale and retail stores, and to carry on a general agency and commission business:

(s.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public and other works:

(t.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To open and keep a register or registers of members in any part or parts of the British Empire or in any foreign country or countries, and to allocate any number of the shares in the Company to such register or registers.

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered pursuant to the "Companies Act" an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Sidney Smith, dated the 26th day of March, 1943, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Dominion Oil Company, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company have been extended by the addition of the following clauses:—

"(b.) 1. To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in and with all kinds of devices and machinery related in any manner whatsoever with the development, mining, improving, handling, drilling, pumping, storing, and refining of oil, its products, or any products of any of its properties; also to manufacture, prepare for market, transport, import, export, deal in and with any article or product of any kind or nature whatsoever, hereby intending to acquire by purchase or manufacture, or otherwise all supplies and materials necessary or convenient for use in accomplishing the objects herein mentioned:

"(b.) 2. To carry on the business of transporting petroleum and other mineral oils, gases, and the products thereof by means of pipe-lines and other means of conveyance and transportation, including ships and other vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, and other vehicles, and to carry on such business as is, directly or indirectly, incidental to such transportation or which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by this Company in connection therewith, or which is calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of this Company's assets, property, and rights:

"(b.) 3. To buy and sell oil of every description and every product thereof, and packages and cases for holding the same, and to contract for, distribute, market, and deal in the same in any manner which may be convenient, and to carry on all or any of the businesses of purchasing, producing, refining, storage, transport, supply, and distribution of every description of petroleum and petroleum products, and also the business of forwarding agents or warehousemen, or any other trade or business whatsoever which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the Company in connection therewith or with the general business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's assets, property, or rights:

"(i.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

"(j.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works, and supply and utilize water under the 'Water Act' or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor, or as an extension thereof:

"(k.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

"(l.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

"(m.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

"(n.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

"(o.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

"(p.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the good-will, trade-marks, trade-names, and all other rights and interests in or pertaining to any business whatever, and to conduct, control, and manage the same, and to assume, entirely or in part, the payment of the debts and liabilities of any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, and to pay for the properties, assets, and rights of any such person, firm, association, company, or corporation in cash, stock of this Company, or with its bonds, or with the stock or bonds of other companies, corporations, persons, firms, or associations, or with other property or otherwise:

"(q.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

"(r.) To carry passengers, goods, and wares of every kind on any of the ships, vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, scows, barges, and other conveyances and means of conveyance of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

"(s.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three.

Registrar of Companies.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
